THE THEATRE. - Such a crowd has seldom been seen within the walls of our theatre as greeted Mr. Ward's talented comany on their first performance last night The whole building was perfectly jammed many being obliged to stand around the doorways. The play opened with the well known comedy "Naval Engagements," Mrs. Leigh. ton taking the part of Mary Mortimer and Miss Belle Douglas that of Mrs. Pontifex, Mr. Phelps assuming the character of Lieut.

Kingston, while Messrs. Potter, Ruby and Benoux came out as Admiral Kingston, Dennis, and Short, respectively. The powers of Mrs. Leighton as a comedienne were highly displayed in this admirable little comedy, and fully sustained the high reputation which and rany susmined the figor reputation which has so long made her the reigning favorite in San Francisco. Her singing was particu-larly applauded, the irresistible humor of her ong exciting the sympathetic risi-he audience till the whole house illaughing song executing the syndyaction is bility of the audience till the whole house was convulsed with mirth. Miss Belle Doug flas as Mrs. Pontifex, the buxom and charming widow, both looked and acted her part admirably. Mr. A. R. Phelps, the gay Lieutenaut, performed his part to perfection, his imitation of the age and infirmities of the old admiral being done to the life and causing the utmost merriment in the house. Of Mr. Potter we need not speak; his abilities are well-known and recognized among his old friends here. Of course he acted the old admiral well, as he always does. In the laughable comedy of Sketches in India, Mrs. Leighton had a still better opportunity of exhibiting her ability as a delineator of wit and humor, while her laughter-moving talents columnated in the concluding little comedicate of the "Fool of the Family," leaving the audience perfectly helpless from excess of mirth. Count Glorieux by Mr. Phelps was most thoroughly rendered, his imitation of the French accent being excellent, while his "get up" was inimitable. He is an actor much merit and will doubtless at once take a position as a prime favorite with his Victoria audiences. We cannot close our remarks without favorably noticing the uniformly good, painstaking performance of Mr. J. S. Ruby, who acquitted himself. without favorably noticing the uniformly good, painstaking performance of Mr. J. S. Ruby, who acquitted himself alike well in all three pieces. We were also glad to observe a marked improvement in the orchestra, now under the able direction of Mr. G. S. St. Clair. To night a fine bill is promised, to be rendered by the entire strength of the company; the pieces are the comedy of the "Little Davil's Share," the screaming large of "Objects of Interests," and the "Loav of a Lover." The curtain rises at half-past seven precisely, so those who wish to get a good seat should go early.

AN INDIAN MURDERER .- On Friday night ast, Superintendent Smith hearing that the Chief of a tribe at Sooke had been harbarously killed by a half-breed named Lazar proceeded to the spot to apprehend the miscreant. Lazar had taken flight and hidden himself for two or three days but at last was compelled from hunger to return to the camp.
Supt. Smith happened to be there just at the mick of time, and immediately took him into mick of time, and immediately took him into Duncan, Bayley, mick of time, and immediately took him into custody. Lazar is a youth apparently not more than 18 or 20 years of age. He was placed in the dock of the police court yesterday charged with the murder of the Chief Longman, and also with shooting and wounding another Indian named Toxter. In consequence of the non-attendance of the necessary witnesses the case was remanded until to-day, when the particulars of the atrocious deed will transpite.

DIANA OF POICTIERS .- Our attention has been called to an error committed in our no-The bill to grant representation to grant and gures in the window of M. Riviere, the barber on Government street. The lady at present displaying her grageful proportions to the admiring crowd, and whom the Siwash was so desirous his betrothed should be made to imitate, was a mould from the bust not of "the goddess of chastity," but of "Dinna of Poietiers," the lovely maid of honor who saved the life of King Henry IV. of France, while out hunting in the 16th century, and afterwards became his mistross. The second figure, clothing to be exhibited, was taken from a bust of Terpsichore the goddess at whose shrine young men and maidons, so freely worship in every land.

Wholsfale Murder by Indians—A report is in circulation among the Indians here that seven or eight Port Rupert Indians who left this in a cance on Tuesday last, have been murdered at the north end of San Juan Island by some of the Flat Head tribes. A bad feeling has prevailed between the Northern Indians and the Flat Heads for some time, growing out of the kidnapping of several Lummi Indians some three years ago. The Indians here are very excited and are organizing a party to go in search of the murderers.

CRICKET .- We have received from Mr. A. Hensley a communication, witten at the request of Capt. Layton, accepting on behalf of Mr. Howard the challenge of Mr. Walface, which appeared in the Chronicle of the 22nd inst, with the exception of the dinner The match to be played on Saturday next. We shall publish Mr. Hensley's letter with the names of the proposed Cariboottes and non-Cariboottes in our next.

BEATING A SQUAW.-A man named Par Finnagan was charged in the police court yesterday by a squaw with beating her and giving her a black eye. The prosecutor and defendant were allowed to adjourn and set-tle their differences, and upon returning into court the damsel desired that proceedings might be stayed. The assessed value of the damaged optic was $5.

THE WHISKY BROIL .- Two Hydahs named Charley alias Gauka, and Charley alias Nacla, who were charged yesterday before Mr. Pemberton with violently assaulting and wounding an Indian named Sauclusand, were remanded for one day. The steamer Caledonia arrived from New Westminster last night at 12 o'clock, CITY COUNCIL.

AUDITING THE ACCOUNTS.

Mr. Searby proposed that Messrs. Charles W. Wallace and Lumley Franklin be appointed to audit the accounts, he believed both the gentlemen would act.

Mr. Copland was opposed to two gentlemen being named without a Committee being first appointed to ascertain whether the gentlemen named would act for certair, as the Council might probably, upon their last sitting, stultily themselves by appointing gentlemen who would not act. He, therefore moved that a Committee be appointed to nowed that a Committee be appointed to nominate two persons to audit the accounts to the end of the present month. (Carried.)

CORRESPONEENCE WITH THE DUKE OF NEW-

Mr. Hicks introduced the following motion:
That whereas, numerous correspondence has passed between the Council and His Excellency Sir James Douglas. And whereas the correspondence in many cases reflected upon the officials for encroachments on public streets, and squares. And whereas, on reference to the correspondence between His Excellency Sir James Douglas and His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, it is clarly manifest that the greatest zeal on behalf of His Excellency and the officials under him for the preservation of the public lands was exhibited. This Council fully coucurs in the course adopted by His Excellency and the officials under him, this Council feel convinced they are not in the slightest degree responsible for the wrong which has been inflicted on the public by the alteration of maps, curtailing public streets and reserves.

Mr. Searby seconded the resolution.

Mr. Hicks explained the object of his works and popularity, and in so short a time won the favor and goodwill of all classes by his affable and humorous manner both in private intercourse and and as a public speaker on the platform. Mr. Hicks introduced the following motion :

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—The Archor of Hope.—If there be one description of human knowledge superior to all others is is the knowledge of the means of preserving or regalning health; wasting which existence is a mockery, death; wasting which existence is a mockery, death relief. Holloway's twin medicaments supply this great desideratum. In all diseases they are beneficial because they purify the blood, from which every portion of the body must inertiably be renewed. The Ointment, by bres grain ing and wholesome in the control of the body must inertiably be renewed, and then extend and underlying ergans. In this way the stomach, lungs, liver and kidneys, can be effectively reached and invigorated, reprelaily if followay's Fills be simultaneously taken to aid in the work of purification and regeneration. The bible society Meeting.

This meeting was held in the new Literary Institute on Monday night, and was the most numerously attended gathering ever seen here. A branch Bible Society was formed with officers and committee composed of various denominations and embracing all classes of the community. W. H. Franklyn, Esq. J. P., occupied the chair. Thirty-eight members recorded their names at the close of the meeting, the condition of membership being as annual subscription to at the close of the meeting, the condition of membership being an annual subscription to the funds of the society. It would be vain to attempt an aedquate description of the oration delivered by the cloquent agent of the society, the Rev. Lachlin Taylor, as it would only be a repetition of the well-merited culogy which the press of Victoria have unanimously accorded him as a public orator. Suffice it to say that the estimate formed by us, of the speaker's powers of oratory were fully sustained by his speech ou Mondaynight. The Heverends D. V. Lucas, and E. White, Weslayan, the Rev. J. B. Good, Episcopalian, and C. S. Nicol, Esq., manager, were the other speakers of the evening.

INGRESSID REGRESSION.

The bill to grant representation to the Enverprise arrived yesterday afternoon with a districts of Cowichan and Comax was brought amall quantity of treasure and 34 passengers, amongst whom we noticed the Right Rev.

Mr. Young said that it was expected that all spring Island would have risen to be a large settlement.

Mr. Duncan said that other things required representation besides taxation; life and property were to be thought of.

Mr. Ridge compared Cowichan to Salt Spring greatly to the advantage of the former. He thought if the constitutional rule had been broken in favor of Salt Spring, it might well be broken again for Cowichan and Comax.

The first clause was carried.

Ayes—Messrs. DeCosmos, Ridge, Street, Duncan, Bayley, Carswell, and Dennes.

Noes—Helmeken, Young, Trimble.

The second clause being brought up Dr. Helmeken disagreed with the principle in toto. He would and take up the time of the House, but would simply state that under the One per cent, Tax Act every electoral district was liable to be taxed.

Mr. Street—Why is not Salt Spring taxed?

Dr. Helmeken—I don't know; I'm not the ex-cen'ive!

Mr. Street—Why is not Salt Spring taxed?

Dr. Tolmis said that the bad the names of sixty or seventy residents of Comax who were willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why willing to be taxed, and he did not see why will not be allowed a sixty or seventy residents of the more soluble and the proposed that it was a pity if any district, which was not taxed, sending a representative to the House.
